design Antonio Citterio
con Sergio Brioschi

la memoria dell'acqua sembrerebbe avere disegnato la morbida linea delle ceramiche. a contrappunto, la razionalità delle forme di mobili e componenti d'arredo porta il segno caratteristico della mano dell'uomo, di una precisa idea estetica. natura e ordine, principi ugualmente indispensabili, trovano una sintesi esemplare nella collezione firmata da antonio citterio con sergio brioschi. un ambiente di rigorosa bellezza dove la tangibile consistenza dei materiali si incontra con l'astratta purezza del design. qualità da percepire con i sensi e da apprezzare con la mente. un perfetto sistema domestico dove, dal singolo dettaglio all'insieme, ogni cosa è disposta secondo un ordine formale e funzionale. funzionale al buon vivere.

the soft lines of the bathroom ceramics seem to have been fashioned by recollections of water. in contrast, the functional forms of the furniture and furnishing accessories bear the characteristic mark of man's intervention and of a specific aesthetic idea. nature and orderliness, equally indispensable principles, are perfectly expressed in the collection designed by antonio citterio with sergio brioschi. a particularly beautiful environment in which the tangible substance of materials is offset by the abstract purity of design. quality to be perceived with the senses and appreciated with the mind. a perfect home formula in which, from each individual detail to the whole, everything is arranged in a formal and functional order. functional for the good life.

POZZI-GINORI

Pozzi-Ginori è storia dell'arte e del design italiani della porcellana da bagno. Le sue origini risalgono al 1735, quando il marchese Carlo Ginori dette inizio, fra i primi in Europa, alla creazione di splendidi manufatti in quel prezioso tipo di ceramica che allora era chiamato "l'oro bianco". La sua Manifattura di Doccia, a nord ovest di Firenze, divenne presto fra le massime d'Europa. Nel tempo, con la Ginori si fusero le altre manifatture ceramiche progressivamente sorte in Italia: prima quella di Giulio Richard, poi la Società Ceramica Italiana di Laveno, quindi la Pozzi. Ognuna di queste, prima da sola, poi integrandosi alle altre, ha segnato le varie tappe della sapienza e della tecnologia italiane nella progettazione e nella realizzazione di prodotti sanitari in porcellana. Con l'iniziare e poi l'affermarsi dei metodi e della prassi dell'industrial design, fin dal 1918 grandi designer hanno contribuito a scandire tali tappe: Giò Ponti, Guido Andlovitz, lo studio Nizzoli, Giovanni Gariboldi, Antonia Campi, Gae Aulenti, Paolo Tilche, Matteo Thun, fra i più noti. Ed ora anche Antonio Citterio. Entrata in Sanitec Group nel 1994, Pozzi-Ginori continua la sua grande tradizione con immutata costante capacità innovativa.

Pozzi-Ginori represents the history of Italian art and design in bathroom ceramics. Its origins date to 1735, when Marquess Carlo Ginori was one of the first people in Europe to begin manufacturing splendid objects in a precious grade of ceramics they used to call "white gold." His Doccia Factory northwest of Florence quickly became one of the largest in Europe. Over time, Ginori merged with other ceramic manufacturers that progressively sprang up in Italy: first, there was Giulio Richard, then the Laveno Italian Ceramic Company, and finally Pozzi. Each manufacturer began on its own, then merging with the others, as they established milestones in Italian technology and expertise in the design and creation of bathroom ceramic products. As the methods and practices of industrial design originated and then asserted themselves, great designers have helped articulate various stages since 1918: Giò Ponti, Guido Andlovitz, the Nizzoli studio, Giovanni Gariboldi, Antonia Campi, Gae Aulenti, Paolo Tilche, and Matteo Thun are some of the better known ones. Now there is Antonio Citterio. After entering the Sanitec Group in 1994, Pozzi-Ginori has continued this grand tradition with its unchanging, constant capacity to innovate.
